Maori People
The Maori People are the Indigenous People of New Zealand. They arrived in New Zealand from eastern Polynesia in several waves, sometime before 1300.

Maori “Hangi” Feast
Complete your adventure through Rotorua with a traditional Maori “hangi” feast. You’ll travel by coach to Tamaki Maori Village where your local guide will escort you on a cultural journey to the “marae” (Maori village), the life force of New Zealand’s Indigenous people.

Lord of the Rings
Did you know the entire series of one of the most popular mythical movies of all time was filmed in New Zealand? It went by the title of Lord of the Rings, and included everything mythical from orcs to invisibility rings from dragons to giant spiders. This movie is a movie you have to see!
Sport

New Zealand plays lots of sports such as Rugby, NRL and AFL. Their rugby team is the All Blacks, a strong and aggressive team. They perform their traditional war dance called the “haka” before each game.

Haka

A traditional dance from the Maori people of New Zealand, it is a posture dance performed by a group with strong vigorous movements and stamping of the feet with rhythmically shouted accompaniments.

Food

Traditional food is the roast lamb, potatoes and other various vegetables. The roast lamb is part of the hangi feast of the Maori people and is cooked under the ground.