Royal National Park Excursion

This term, and to support classroom science and geography topics, students will be visiting the Royal National Park to gain a deeper understanding of the natural environment, biodiversity and living things. Activities will be led by teachers from the Environmental Education Centre and involve some walking.

Location- Royal National Park (Bonnie Vale)

Date - Thursday 24th May

Time - Leave school at 9:05am. Return by 3.00pm.

Transport - Travel is by seat-belted bus.

Cost - Park entry, bus and lesson - $24.00

Please wear sports uniform with comfortable walking shoes (shoes may get muddy so please wear an older pair if possible). Please bring recess, lunch, a waterproof jacket or raincoat, a hat and water bottle. There will be no facilities to purchase food and drinks on the excursion.

Kind Regards
